the only thing in life that you have 100 per cent control over are the thoughts in your head when your thoughts are centred around the very essence of your purpose and the meaning of your life you unleash immeasurable power in 2016 Richard Wright was confronted with a diagnosis of rare pituitary cancer a disease about which little is known other than that it is almost invariably terminal in attempting to deal with this bleak knowledge Richard defined what mattered most in his life his true purpose which was ensuring that his two young daughters would not have to grow up without their dad understanding his life purpose he focused on overcoming the seemingly insurmountable challenges and obstacles that faced him using the sheer power of his mind ongoing research into what the human mind is capable of and sheer grit and determination enabled him to complete four full Ironman races while undergoing harsh cancer treatment with his daughters cheering him on it wasn't easy and he had to dig deep to overcome setbacks and disappointments but he never gave up instead he found the strength and the freedom to speak his truth and to become the most authentic version of himself possible richard's story told with raw honesty humility and humour provides proof that discomfort sparks outrageous achievement especially when linked to our sense of purpose it is a profound story of passion and endurance but above all it is a story that will resonate deeply for every one of us whatever our life circumstances revealing learnings that challenge us to think differently about our purpose in life the power of purpose is an unforgettable account of one man's indomitable will to overcome crippling adversity its power will remain with you long after you have turned the last page what richard has done with the power of purpose is nothing short of a gift a modern day man's search for meaning bronwyn williams futurist trend analyst economist utterly remarkable richard has a way of illuminating the darkness beyond possibility like nobody i've ever met mike stopforth director of beyond binary entrepreneur speaker
